

Roof load weight standards are pre-empted to federal control under the federal manufactured housing code 24 CFR Part 3280.

Local standards do not control this issue.

“It is crystal clear that ALL of West Virginia is located in the South area which has a 20 PSF minimum requirement,” Labor Commissioner Mitchel E. Woodrum said.