

Paid Sick Leave Policy

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the policy is to establish guidelines to comply with the Families First Coronavirus Response Act ("FFCRA") and its Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act ("E-PSL Act") for [Name of Employer] ("_____") as required by the new federal law.

This Policy is only effective for leave taken between April 1, 2020 to December 31, 2020.

ELIGIBILITY

This policy applies to all employees (full & part-time) regardless of the date of hire.

To take leave under the E-PSL Act, and employee must be unable to work or telework due to the following reasons:

1. The employee is subject to a government-mandated quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19.
2. The employee is directed by a health care provider to self-quarantine related to COVID-19.
3. The employee is experiencing COVID-19 symptoms and seeking a medical diagnosis.
4. An employee is taking care of an individual (not limited to a family member) who is covered under items 1 and 2 listed above.
5. The employee is caring for a son or daughter of such employee if the school or place of care of the son or daughter has been closed, or the child-care provider of such child is unavailable due to COVID-19 precautions. The term "son or daughter" means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is-
 - (A) under 18 years of age; or
 - (B) 18 years of age or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.
6. The employee is experiencing any other substantially similar conditions specified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Labor.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

1. Full-time employees will receive up to 80 hours of sick pay at their regular rate of pay, if the reasons are items 1-3 listed above in Section 3.0. If the reason for paid sick leave is items 4-6 as listed in Section 3.0, employees receive 2/3 of their regular rate of pay.

2. Part-time employees will be paid for the number of hours they are normally scheduled to work in a two-week period. If normal schedules are not followed, a six-month average will be used to calculate average daily hours. If the employee has been employed less than six months, the [Employer Name] will calculate the appropriate number of hours of leave based on the average hours per day the employee was scheduled to work over the entire term of his or her employment.
3. If the reason for leave is items 1-3 listed in the Eligibility Section, an employee will be paid their normal hourly rate or the applicable minimum wage, whichever is higher, up to a maximum of $511 a day and a maximum of $5,110 in the aggregate.
4. If the reason for leave is items 4-6 listed in the Eligibility Section, an employee will be paid a maximum benefit of 2/3 of an employee's rate of pay or 2/3 of the applicable minimum wage, with a maximum of $200 a day, and a maximum of $2,000 in the aggregate.
5. This leave is a benefit in addition to any other employee benefit and will not diminish or serve as a replacement for those other benefits. The [Employer Name] will not require employees to use other leave before using the E-PSL Act leave. Nothing herein is supposed to lessen a collective bargaining agreement, or greater benefits to employees under a contract or plan.
6. Leave under this policy capped at 80 hours for a full-time employee, or for a part-time employee, the number of hours equal to the average number of hours that the employee works over a typical two-week period) of paid sick leave for any combination of qualifying reasons. However, the total number of hours for which you receive paid sick leave is capped at 80 hours under the Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act.

NOTICE

Where leave is foreseeable, an employee should provide notice of leave to the employer as is practicable. After the first workday of paid sick time, an employer may require employees to follow reasonable notice procedures in order to continue receiving paid sick time.

CARRY-OVER

Any unused E-PSL will not carry over to the follow year and employees will forfeit any unused time of the E-SPL. Furthermore all unused time under E-SPL will be forfeited upon separation from employment from any reason.

PROHIBITIONS

The [Employer Name] will not discharge, discipline or otherwise discriminate against any employee who take paid sick leave under the E-PSL Act or who files a complaint or institutes a proceeding under the FFRCA, and the E-PSL section.
